

TWINS TAKE HOME MONEY BOX MEMENTOES

Twins Emma (left), and Kate Donnelly, pupils at Luddenden Junior School, with money boxes children received to mark the school's closure.

All the school's 89 children received the mementoes from headteacher Mrs Carole Lumb during a final school open day.

The money boxes are modelled on the school which opened in 1825 and were made by Shelf Pottery.

After the summer holidays children will transfer to the new Luddenden Dene Church of England Junior and Infant School, Dene View, Luddenden Foot, along with pupils from Ludden-den Infants School, and Luddenden Foot Church of England Junior and Infant School, Blackwood Hall, Luddenden Foot, which also closed this week.

Mrs Lumb will transfer to Cragg Vale Junior and Infant School, until she retires at Christmas.

Picture: IAN SWIFT